Bye Laws relating to Births and Deaths

(I) Bye laws ~~and~~ (i) These Bye laws are drafted on the lines of those sanctioned for the Bangalore city Municipality Bye law No 11 requiring informants to attend the Registrar's Office is new

(II) Bye law No 1 This does not appear to be properly worded The Bye law may be altered as shewn in pencil Bye Law No 3 says that births & deaths should be registered in the given form. Reference to register in Bye law No 1 is not clear The may be deleted.

Alterations made in pencil are improvements & they may stand by

(III) Bye law No 8 Instead of 'in the case of persons being born or dying in any hospital' it would be better to substitute ', in the case of births and deaths in any hospital" As no special form is prescribed for reporting births & deaths in a hospital the concluding portion of the Bye law may be altered as shewn here

may be adopted by

S. 12] and Revenue Secretariat

BIRTHS AND DEATHS

Clause G, Sub-Section 1 of Section 48 of the Municipal Regulation

1 A register shall be kept of all births and deaths in the town and for this purpose the town shall be divided into 3 divisions as noted in the margin* and for every such division, a Registrar of births and deaths shall be appointed

2 Every Registrar shall hold his office at some place within his division of which he is Registrar and shall cause his name with his designation as such Registrar of births and deaths for the division of which he is so appointed, in English and Kanarese to be placed in some conspicuous place on or near the outer door of his office

3 All births and deaths shall be registered in books in the form given in the appended schedule

4 Every Registrar shall inform himself carefully of every birth and of every death, which happens in his division and shall register, as soon as conveniently may be after the event, without fee or reward, the particulars required to be registered, according to the forms in the said schedules, touching every such birth and death, as the case may be, which has not been already registered

5 All such entries shall be made consecutively from the beginning to the end of the book

6 The father or mother of every child born in the division or in the case of death, illness, absence or inability of the father and mother, the medical attendant or the midwife or some other person who was present at or in attendance during the child's birth or the caretaker or manager of the premises in which to his knowledge the child is born shall within one week next after the day of every such birth give or cause to be given orally or in writing to the Registrar of the division according to the best of his or her knowledge and belief information of the several particulars hereby required to be known and registered touching the birth of such child

7 Some one of the persons present at death or in attendance during the last illness of every person dying within the division, or in the case of the death of any inability or default of all such persons the occupier of the building or if the occupier be the person who has died some person living in the building in which such death has happened, and where no person is living in the building, the care taker or manager of the premises in which to his knowledge the death has occurred, shall, unless prevented by good and sufficient cause, within 72 hours next after such occurrence, give, or cause to be given, either orally or in writing, information to the Registrar of the division, according to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, of the several particulars hereby required to be known and registered touching the death of such person

8 In the case of persons being born or dying in any hospital, it should be the duty of the medical officer in charge forthwith to send intimation in writing to the Registrar of the occurrence of any birth or death in the hospital and such intimation shall be in the form prescribed in the schedule given hereafter

9 Every person who conducts or performs the funeral ceremonies of any person who has died within the division shall, whenever required, furnish to the Registrar or to any person authorized by him such information as he possesses as to the said several particulars

10 If any person whose duty it is to give information required under the above bye laws, and without due cause, neglects or refuses to give such information within the periods mentioned therein or gives information knowing it to be false, or having reason to believe that it is false, shall be liable to fine not exceeding Rs 10

11 Every person giving the information contained in any register of births and deaths under the foregoing bye laws shall attend in person at the office of the Registrar of the division and sign in the register his name with full address and if he cannot write, shall affix his mark in the register to his name and address

12 The Registrar shall forthwith give, free of all charge, to the person who gives information of birth or death, an extract from the register relating to such birth or death signed by the Registrar

13 In the case of births and deaths in the hospitals the registration of the birth or death shall be deemed to be completed by the entry in the register of the written intimation received from the medical officer in charge of the said

hospital prescribed in para 8 without the signature of the Medical officer, to the entry in such register

14 Every person applying for a certified extract from the Registers of births and deaths shall pay for every such extract a fee of As 8 and if the extract required is from the registers of a year other than that in which the application is made, an additional search fee of As 4 shall be charged Such extracts shall be certified by the President or the Vice-President and sealed with the seal of the Municipal Council
